The second book from Torrey Peters

It's time to choose another tome
In order not to float in roam
The honest voting should reveal
What other book we will unseal

No matter how the others vote
I will be stubborn as a goat
It's not a fiction, nor romance
This is a novel named "Stag Dance"

The reason of my choice is clear
This book was published in this year
I've read the other author's book
And it has caught me like a hook

I don't encourage you to read
Cause it may not be what you need
But still my choice is all with me
I made my bet, so will it be
